To Whom It May Concern:

Ruby Karen has asked me to write a testimonial in support of her application to your scholarship program, and I am more than happy to oblige.

I co-produce the Dance in LA series of concerts here in Los Angeles with choreographer/impresario Deborah Brockus. Our four different series aim to enhance the growth and visibility of concert dance activity in the greater L.A. area and we have been recognized as the leaders in this effort.

Ruby Karen is a featured member of and has performed extensively with Brockus Project Dance Company. It is in this context that I know her. She has all the characteristics of a successful performer – very solid and strong technique, compelling and beautiful stage presence, and the emotional and physical stamina to withstand any obstacles thrown her way. She exhibits the kind of professionalism and consistency that is too often lacking in many performers. Ruby also works very hard and is always an admirable team-player.

Ruby Karen is an extremely accomplished performer and would be a worthy and valued participant in your program. I heartily recommend her.

Very truly yours,

Daisy Kim, Co-Producer
